A Family Affair

Four Generations Coming Together

By Natalie Sylvia Hemingway

The Mattapoisett Holy Ghost Grounds on Park Street in Mattapoisett served as the site where 155 members of the John S. and Emilia F. Sylvia family, ranging from 92 years to 3 months of age, gathered to remember and to introduce to the younger relatives the place of their family roots. Even this site was important to this Saint Anthony's Church family as they grew up in this little South Coast community. Church activities and American Legion clambakes were remembered by the family members who have lived through many years.

The longest living member is Manuel F. Sylvia, a veteran of World War II, being 92 years of age, with his sister Louise Sylvia Hogan not far behind him at 89 years. Manny and Louise had 12 other siblings who were the children of Joao Silveira Sioto and Emilia Caroline deFreitas from the islands of Fayal and Flores, respectively, of the Azore Islands. In America they were known as John S. Sylvia and Emilia Freitas.

John came to America to work on the Humphrey Farm in Rochester and Emilia came to be a cook and servant to Doctor Kirby of New Bedford. John and Emilia met in 1897 and were married in Mattapoisett on June 1, 1899 as John, at this time, had left the Rochester farm to work for Mr. Dennis Mahoney. Mr. and Ms. Mahoney were witnesses for John and Emilia's wedding.

Thus began a life dedicated to farming and the raising of Guernsey cows to provide fresh milk to the residents of Mattapoisett as John S. Sylvia Guernsey Milk and Cream with 13 children to help out with the chores and upon John's death in 1953, son Frank Sylvia continued the dairy business as the Colonial Dairy for a combined total of about 50 years. One son, Robert, lived only a few months during the 1918 influenza outbreak.

Starting in 1900 to 1921, there was Dennis with John, Domingo, Alfred, Mary, Joseph, Edward, twins Frank and Anna, then Manuel, Emily, Louise, and Helen to complete the family. Many of these family members served the Town of Mattapoisett in various capacities — Estate Caretakers, Fence Viewers, Plumbing Inspector, Board of Health member, Real Estate Agent, member of the Mattapoisett Zoning Board, Wholesale and Retail Meats Dealer, School Bus Transportation for Children, Gas Station Owners, Mechanics and Luncheonette Owners. They all attended Mattapoisett's Center School and Colleges of Higher Education.

Like the many local friends and family members who have supported Matthew during his illness, Curt Shilling and the Red Sox have been longtime supporters of Dana-Farber and the Jimmy Fund.*

There were 41 grandchildren for John and Emilia to enjoy during their 54 years of marriage. Emilia did have the opportunity to see some of her great-grandchildren. In 1969 she was presented with the Boston Post Cane as the oldest citizen of Mattapoisett and she held that title for four years. She reached the age of 98 for her lifetime years.

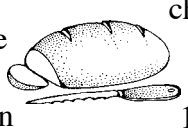

A legacy of love was remembered at this year's Family Reunion with second, third and fourth generations gathering to meet family members that they had never seen. The extended families of these children of John and Emilia reach hundreds in number. They came from Montana; Washington; California; Florida; Maryland; Iowa; Massachusetts; Connecticut; Washington, DC; New Hampshire; New York; Colorado; Kentucky; Michigan; and Maine and will take back home with them remembrances of a wonderful gathering in Mattapoisett on a beautiful day in July 2006.

the nationally syndicated tv show, Geraldo At Large, seen weeknights at 6:00 pm on FOX 25.

Marion traditions like the Marion Antiques Show, the Buzzards Bay Regatta and Tabor Academy will be featured. The morning crew will also show off Marion's waterfront landmarks and fantastic views with a harbor cruise.

The local flavor of Marion will carry through the entire show with Gene and VB getting to know the year-round residents of Marion and hearing about their favorite spots. After leading viewers on a town tour, the morning team will sample culinary delights from Harriet's Outback and the Sippican Herb Company.

Marion residents are invited to show up early and bring a new children's book to the live broadcast to benefit the FOX 25 Morning News Children's Book Drive. All of the books collected will go to Reach Out And Read, a literacy program that helps pediatricians put books in the hands of children growing up in poverty.

Rochester Memorial School students Arissa and Deianeira Underhill will also be featured guests on the FOX 25 Morning News Show between 8:00 and 9:00 am for having purchased over 300 brand new children's books with their own money to be donated to the Children's Book Drive.

Rochester Fair Photo Contest

To go along with the Rochester Country Fair's "Days of Yesteryear" Theme, the Fair is having a "From the Attic" Photo Exhibit as well as a "Then and Now" Photo Contest. The contest will take place at the Fair on Saturday, August 19.

Start searching for photos from Rochester taken more than 50 years ago. Enter pictures of your ancestors, your grandparents and parents as children, places that no longer exist, places that still exist after all these years, scenes of Rochester long ago.

For obvious reasons, you will not need to have taken the photo, but you can include the photographer's name, if known. It would also be interesting if you could include any details you know about the photo's origin or history. Enter even if unsure of its origin or the year it was taken.

Exhibit Photos will be sorted according to the following categories:

- Places of Rochester's past;
- Landscapes of Rochester taken years ago; and
- People and Portraits of Yesteryear.

There will also be a special contest called "Then and Now." Enter pictures of places in Rochester back then and submit a recent photo depicting the way it looks now. This should be fun and memorable.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

July 25, 2006

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, July 25 at 6:00 pm by Chairman Jordan C. Collyer. Also present were Selectman Raymond H. Andrews, Selectman Stephen J. Lombard, Town Administrator Michael J. Botelho, and Assistant to the Town Administrator Melody Pacheco.

The board first approved the minutes of the July 11 meeting (both Open and Executive Sessions) and then voted to appoint the following to the Harbormaster Building Committee: Steve Mach, Harbormaster; Richard Tatlock; Manny DelLima; Carlos DeSousa; and Randy Smith. The board also voted to accept the resignation, with regret, of Pat Shea who is stepping down from the Recreation Committee due to family commitments. The board voted to send Ms. Shea a letter of appreciation for her past service to the town.

The board then met with Margaret DeMello of the Mattapoisett Historical Commission and Co-Chairman of the 150th Birthday/Sesquicentennial Committee to discuss plans for the town's 150th Anniversary Celebration in 2007. Ms. DeMello said one of the events they are planning is the construction of a large birthday cake made out of plywood to be placed in front of the Mattapoisett Town Hall from January 2007 and throughout the sesquicentennial year.

"The actual birthday celebration will take place on May 24, 2007," Ms. DeMello said. "We're hoping to have the (central) streets closed off so we can have a celebration (outside of Town Hall)."

This formal observance will include a planned 90-minute program highlighting a snapshot of the town through the recitation of the incorporation, guest speakers and patriotic music, followed by treats usually found at every birthday celebration.

With that, the board unanimously voted to approve Ms. DeMello's request to close off the streets for the May 24 celebration.

Selectman Lombard also suggested Ms. DeMello and her committee solicit local craftspeople to possibly work on constructing the wooden birthday cake.

"Knowing the craftsmen we have in town, maybe they would jump at the chance if given the opportunity," Selectman Lombard said.

Selectman Andrews next noted there is a public hearing on Thursday, July 27 at 6:30 pm upon the application of Verizon to provide cable television services to Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester. The hearing will be held in the multimedia room in the lower level of Old Rochester Regional High School (adjacent to the ORCTV Studio facilities). All tri-town residents and invited and encouraged to attend to voice their input.

Under Notes and Announcements, the board noted:

• The next regular Selectmen's meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 8 at 6:00 pm in the Mattapoisett Town Hall.

• The Mattapoisett Assessors Office will be closed all day on Friday, July 28 for office training.

• The Plymouth County Selectmen's Association Meeting will be held on August 3 at 6:30 pm in the Plymouth County Sheriff's Office. Selectman Andrews agreed to attend on the board's behalf.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Botelho noted they will award the bid for the North Street renovation project to the firm of Lawrence Lynch tomorrow at a price of $223,620, which is within the budgeted amount. Mr. Botelho also advised he will be in close contact with the local business owners to let them know exactly when work will begin so as to minimize its impact on their businesses.

Lastly, Mr. Botelho noted there was vandalism to

REALITY VERSUS MYTH IN PLANNING FOR LONG TERM LIVING

REALITY: As we age, enjoying our lives with our families and pets in our comfortable surroundings, we are aware of a possible health event that could cause us to need care and maintain our dignity. Today, 68 percent of the population over age 65 are aware of the importance of having a plan to age in place YET remain unprotected due to false perceptions about Long Term Care Insurance and Long Term Care Asset Protection.

MYTH No. 1: If I am not in excellent health or my spouse has been declined in the past, I must remain self-insured and crisis-manage my retirement years.

MYTH No. 2: If I do not use it, I lose it. Paying premiums/without care reimbursement.

MYTH No. 3: I will self-insure and be aware of the total cost of care vs. known cost and limited asset liability.

MYTH No. 4: Medicaid or Medicare will pay for my Long Term Care Plan.

MYTH No. 5: Long Term Care Planning is expensive.

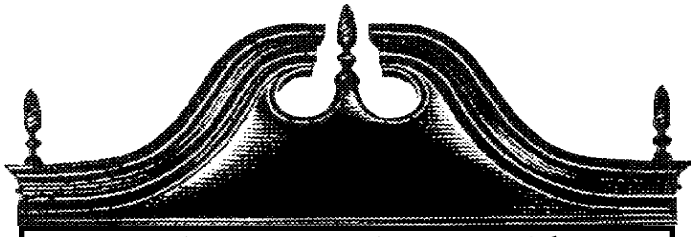

GET ALL THE FACTS. UNDERSTAND THE FEDERAL DEFICIT REDUCTION ACT OF 2005. UNDERSTAND ALL OF YOUR OPTIONS REGARDING LONG TERM CARE PROTECTION.

We invite you to visit our office at East Over Farms for a complimentary, no obligation consultation. To take advantage of this opportunity, call today to schedule a convenient date and time for us to meet.

Rochester Road Race

A group of Rochester residents is finalizing plans for the first annual Rochester Road Race sponsored by Covanta SEMASS. This 5K (3.1-mile) event will kick off on Saturday, August 12 at 9:00 am and is open to runners and walkers of all abilities.

"We want this to be a fun community event that everybody can be a part of," said Kevin Cassidy, one of the race's organizers. "We've made it open to runners and walkers of all ages and are providing T-shirts for runners, a Red Sox raffle, awards for top finishers, refreshments and goodie bags."

The race culminates months of planning and coordination on the part of Kevin Cassidy, Chuck Kantner, Scott Muller, Jeff Perry and Travis VanHall — all Rochester residents who regularly run in other local road races.

"The event is over in less than an hour, but the planning takes almost a year," noted Chuck Kantner. "Race day needs to be coordinated with local police, Mass Highway, the Board of Selectmen, US Track and Field, not to mention publicity, race day volunteers, T-shirts, awards, and refreshments." The group has been told that the groundwork laid in the first year is by far the hardest.

Though not affiliated with the Rochester's Country Fair, the race was timed to provide a kick-off to fair week. "With all the events going on during the Fair, we couldn't hold it at the same time, but we did want to keep the fun, down-home feeling that the Rochester Fair generates," said Travis VanHall of the race committee.

The race organizers have incorporated as a non-profit organization and any net profit from this year's race will be donated to the athletics program at Old Rochester Regional High School. Funding for the race is generated primarily through sponsorships, with Convanta SEMASS in Rochester providing title sponsorship, as well as race entry fees. "We appreciate the generous support of all our sponsors," said Jeff Perry.

Entry forms can be picked up now at the Plumb Memorial Library and Bev Loves Books in Rochester and the Wareham YMCA or entries can be processed online at www.jbrace.com. Runners and walkers can also sign up the day of the race at 8:00 am.

The race will start on Dexter Lane, continue down Mary's Pond Road to Walnut Plain, and turn left on Clapp Road. A water stop will be set up on Clapp Road at the halfway point. Runners will turn left onto Mendell Road, then make another left onto Rounseville Road, finishing on the church green in the center of town.

"Part of the fun of these events is community participation," said Scott Muller, one of the race's organizers. "Even if they aren't participating, Rochester residents can come out and cheer for their neighbors."

In other communities, residents along race routes play music for runners or offer a garden hose with a cooling spray.

Specific questions about the race can be e-mailed to rochesterroadrace@comcast.net.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

My cat eats his dry food very fast and then vomits it up on the carpet within 5 minutes. He has done this since he was a kitten. My wife wants to get new carpets but is afraid that the cat will ruin them and wants to get rid of the cat. Help!

Your cat problem is pretty common. Essentially, you just have to make your cat eat slower. Probably the easiest thing to do is put 3 or 4 golf balls on top of the dry food. Then the cat has to move the balls each time he takes a new bite and it slows down the whole process. Other choices are to get 10 small plates and put only a small amount of food in each and then spread them out in the house. Other people will take an egg carton and put a few pieces of food in each of the egg depressions.

Mariner Soccer Club

Mariner Youth Soccer has also formed a U10 Boys and Girls Developmental Program for kids born between August 1, 1996 through July 31, 1997. No tryouts are necessary to sign up for the developmental program. Interested parents can sign up during the U14 Girls tryouts.

The Mariner Youth Soccer Club is hosting a Youth Soccer Academy at the Mariner Youth Soccer complex in Fairhaven. The Mariner Summer Academy will run from August 14 to 17. There will also be walk-up registration day on August 18 for any player ages 7-14 who wishes to experience a day of the academy training. The cost is $25 for half day and $50 for full day. Players who previously enrolled for a four-day session are free. Please call or email Ray M. Cabral at 508-728-1377 or rcabral@umassd.edu if you have any questions.

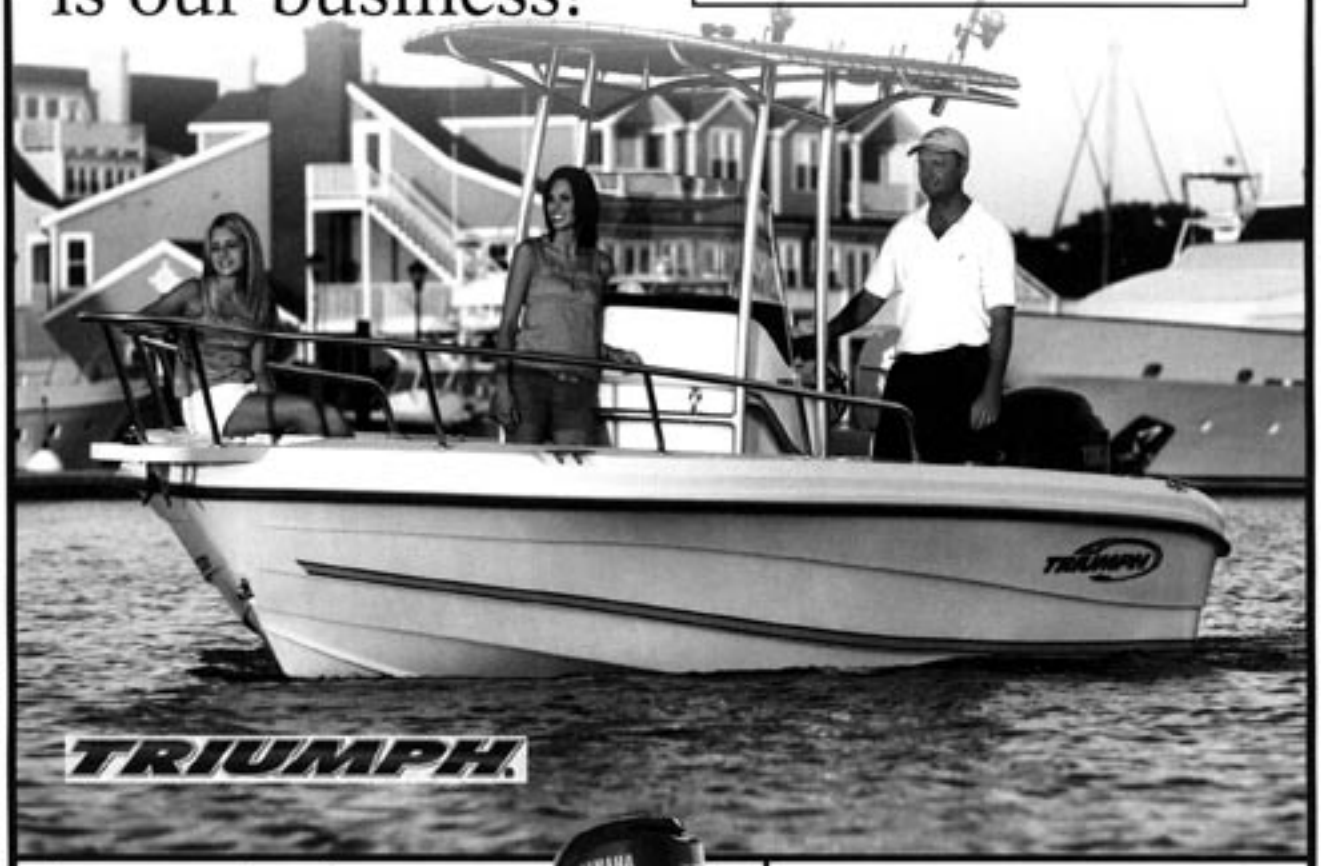

The academy will be conducted under the direction of Mariner Technical Director, Coach Raymond Cabral. Coach Cabral is also the UMass Dartmouth Men's Head Soccer Coach. The Mariner Soccer Academy will be administered by college and high school coaches who are all top clinicians and soccer educators. Each academy participant will be working with a college or high school coach, assisted by college players, who will be able to pinpoint the player's strengths and weaknesses. The coaches will help the player to continue to develop his or her own strengths and work on overcoming the weaker areas of his or her game. This program will give each player a solid base on which they can build their game. Individual technique will be stressed each session. A small-sided game format will also be utilized to help players to develop insight by reading the game as they develop their technique.

Bird Island Challenge

The Fourth Annual Bird Island Kayak Challenge will take place at the Gleason Family YMCA in Wareham on Sunday, August 13. The start of the race begins from the Narrows in downtown Wareham. Kayak enthusiasts will have the choice of three courses: the 12-mile Lighthouse Course circles Bird Island in Marion; the six-mile Great Hill Course; and the two-mile Long Beach Course.

Race day begins with breakfast followed by a mandatory captain's meeting. The race will begin with staggered start times according to boat class from the pier at Besse Park, near the Nantucket Lightship. Safety boats will be stationed along the race course.

Participants are asked to register in advance with a minimum of $100 in pledges to benefit the Gleason Family YMCA. No registrations will be accepted the day of the race. All racers will be given a complimentary race package. Each racer will also receive a complimentary breakfast and lunch. All participants will receive the coveted

ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Route 6 on Fairhaven Road (in Mattapoisett) is not pedestrian friendly and it cannot become pedestrian friendly since it is a main thoroughfare. Therefore, why are so many people complaining about a Dunkin' Donuts or Tedeschi's food store moving to the current Salvation Army location? A store/donut shop in that area would have minimal impact on pedestrians in that area anyway. Taxpayers here need more businesses to come to Mattapoisett to help offset the burden of all the taxes from property owners. I know of many senior citizens that have moved out because of the tax burden on them.

To the Editor:

Through the generosity of Mattapoisett taxpayers, the Local Town Scholarship Committee has awarded 27 scholarships to deserving high school graduates since 2001, totaling $14,900.

The fund, established under Massachusetts General Laws, has been built and sustained by many small donations over the past six years. In order for this fund to continue to be a resource for our college-bound youth, donations are urgently needed in 2006-2007.

Contribution forms are mailed each year with Excise Tax Bills. However, contributions can be made at any time and in any amount and are fully tax-deductible. Donations to the fund are welcome which are given in honor of a special person or in memory of a loved one.

Scholarship winners for 2006 are: Katherine Bernier, Rebecca Davis, Katie Lorenco, Nicholas Lorenco, and Rene Surprenant. With sincere appreciation to all who have contributed.

The Mattapoisett Historical Society wishes to thank all the people who helped with our Harbor Days Booth, the Art Show and Sale, the Ice Cream Social, and the Children's History Day. There are too many to list here, although we wish we could. So, if you are one of those booth sitters, art show volunteers, ice cream scoopers, or history days helpers, please know we appreciate your willingness to help. All of our efforts over the past week or ten days have indeed helped the Society in its mission to "keep Mattapoisett special."

sponse to the Coast Guard's proposed rules for oil transportation through Buzzards Bay, the Coalition outlines the need for multiple vessel safety regulations in the Bay, including a required escort tug, and a Massachusetts state licensed pilot for all oil laden barges, both single and double-hulled, as well as a formally-designated mandatory vessel route for Buzzards Bay.

"It is our view that the Coast Guard must reconsider their proposed rules and formulate strong and meaningful protections which will actually reduce the risk of oil spills in the future," said Korrin N. Petersen, Esq., Coalition Advocacy Director. "The Bay's fragile ecosystem together with its numerous navigational hazards demands that multiple layers of protection be applied to the transportation of petroleum products. Unfortunately, the Coast Guard's proposed rules fail to provide any meaningful regulation which would reduce the risk of a spill like the Bouchard-120, which put 98,000 gallons of oil into the Bay and onto our shores in 2003."

In the Coast Guard's proposed rules, filed in March 2006, the agency only calls for escort tugs for single hull barges carrying 5,000 or more barrels of oil transiting Buzzards Bay and does not mandate vessels to use a recommended navigation route based on National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration navigational charts. Likewise, the Coast Guard falls far short in their proposed pilotage provision, requiring that pilots only "monitor" and "advise" from an escort tug, not be on board the towing vessel.

"This leaves the real navigation to the non-licensed crew members on the towing vessel for both single and double hull units," said Petersen. "In the end, this proposed rule does nothing to improve navigation safety." The Coalition suggests that tug escorts should be piloted by locally knowledgeable Massachusetts state licensed pilots.

The public comment period on these proposed rules closed June 27, 2006. The Coast Guard will now review the comments received and begin promulgating final rules, which could be issued a year or more from now.

"Only redundant layers of safety and protection such as the ones we have proposed will reduce the likelihood of another oil spill in Buzzards Bay," said Petersen. "No one safety measure exists to provide significant risk reduction for the Bay."

recent request from Verizon for a cable franchise license in Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. The public hearing will be held on Thursday, July 27 at 6:30 pm in the ORCTV multimedia room in the lower level of ORR High School.

The purpose of the public hearing is to gather input from residents as to what they'd like from the potential cable television provider. Among the key issues to be discussed:

• Proper level of financial support for Public, Education and Government (PEG) Access programming (operating and capital);

• Proper level of financial support for the iNet;

• Cable service made available to all households (no density requirements);

• Possible iNet installation for Rochester;

• Need for a fourth PEG channel in a few years;

• Importance of 150-foot standard installation to cover both aerial and undergrounding;

• PEG program listings in the Verizon channel guide (as promised in initial application);

• 20 hours of PEG Viewer-On-Demand (VOD) per town (as promised in the initial application);

• A Senior citizen discount;

• No pre-emption of agreement in the event of a change in Federal or State law; and

• That all services are available on monthly a-la carte basis (no annual contract required).

are only a guide. Even though you don't see something listed it doesn't mean you can't enter it in the fair.

There are some special contests just for the kids, which are easy to do. All you need is a piece of poster board and like to collect things found in nature. For example, collect five different bugs attach them to the poster board and write the name underneath each bug. How easy is that? You can enter a collection for in every category. The categories are — insects, wild flowers, leaves, seashells and weeds. Remember, you need five examples for each entry that you do. Make sure your name, address and age are on the back.

The Rochester Grange Fair Committee looks forward to seeing many great entries again this year. For more information on the fair or questions about entries please call Sue LaFleur at 508-295-8908.

newly air-conditioned exhibition hall at Tabor Academy in Marion. Tickets are $8 per person and show hours are from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm daily.

The Marion Antiques Show has been called "The Little Gem of New England," since it offers almost 70 dealers in quality antiques in a wonderful setting for all types of buyers. One of the highlights in this year's show will be a dealer in early barometers from England.

A Gala Preview Party will be held on Friday evening, August 18 from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm. Enjoy an evening reception complete with hors d'oeuvres and entertainment. Tickets are available now by calling 508-748-1116 or can be purchased at the Marion Antique Shop, China Trader Antiques or the Bookstall. The cost is $45 per person in advance and $50 at the door, which also includes admission to the show on Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday, August 20 is Heirloom Discovery Day. A highly qualified panel of expert appraisers will be on hand from 1:00 to 3:00 pm to verbally appraise any antique article. There will be a charge of $15 for appraising up to three objects and this includes admission to the show.

This year the Sippican Historical and Preservation Society, the sponsoring organization for the Marion Antiques Show, will donate a portion of the proceeds to the Marion Tree Committee. Trees will be planted along Route 6 between Main Street and Point Road. The trees will be pruned, watered, and fertilized for three years. Included

"Donations to the Pantry have fallen off lately," said Pantry Administrator Blanche Pepin. Without the benefit of postal and school food drives to stock the Pantry shelves, financial aid is needed to purchase non-perishable items that fill food bags distributed each Saturday morning at the Long Plain United Methodist Church in Acushnet.

"We do need donors who give faithfully every month or even more often," Ms. Pepin said. "Perhaps $20 or $25 once a month does not seem to be very much, but if we continue to receive checks like that from enough people, we would have the funds to help us throught the summer months and into the fall. Please consider a small donation on a regular basis."

Tax deductible checks can be made out to the Shepherd's Pantry and sent to the Pantry, P.O.Box 760, Fairhaven, MA 02719.

Mattapoisett Teen Dances

The summer wharf dances sponsored by the Mattapoisett Track Club are held on Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30 pm. Admission to these dances is limited to junior and senior high school students who are residents of the tri-town area. School ID must be presented. No one will be admitted to these dances after 9:00 pm. Admission fee will be $5 per person.

No backpacks and purses will be allowed into the dance area, and you will be asked to remove chained wallets and large chain necklaces. No rough play or mosh dancing on the wharf is allowed.

Dances will conclude at 10:30 pm and parents who are driving are asked to pick up their children promptly, and to proceed one way along Water Street in an easterly direction (toward the town beach). People walking from the dance are reminded to be courteous of

Elizabeth Taber Library

Summer Programs

Children ages 2-12 and their families can discover the fun of reading at the Elizabeth Taber Library in Marion this summer through Friday, August 11. Weekly events include Tales for Twos and Threes, Bedtime Storytime (a picture book storytime for the whole family), and drop-in activities every Friday and Saturday. Other activities include:

• Reading Games – Pre-readers can help decorate the "Baby Bugs" wall each time they visit the library. Independent readers going into Grades 2-7 and/or family groups reading together can play the "Book Bug" game for fun, prizes and a good cause. This summer, thanks to the generosity of Lockheed Martin Sippican, Inc., the library is using time spent reading to support the work of Heifer International. Learn more about this on the library website or at the library.

Mattapoisett Library Meeting

The Friends of the Mattapoisett Library will hold their annual meeting on Sunday, August 6 at 3:00 pm at the Friends Meeting House, Marion Road, Mattapoisett. After a brief business meeting, guest Robert Linde will speak about photography and his new book, South Coast, Massachusetts.

Mr. Linde said, "Photography, at least its processes, is in a state of whirlwind change. It's as if the cave painters had suddenly discovered oil paint, canvas and the principles of perspective all at once. I've been able to absorb most of it and try to use the new techniques without going overboard. I use digital image capture and digital printing. The older processes gave photographs legitimacy and credibility because it was extremely difficult to make major alterations in an image once it was on a negative, short of airbrushing or painting on a negative or print. Today all the constraints are gone and the question arises: what's okay and what's not?"

Mr. Linde will have copies of his book available, and refreshments will be served.

music and lyrics by Barry Manilow. Audience participation is encouraged — booing, hissing, clapping, laughing, singing, but no food throwing!

The show was first presented in 1844 at the Boston Museum and played for 140 performances. Then P.T. Barnam (of circus fame) latched onto The Drunkard and brought it to New York where it ran for 150 performances. It was soon noted that many of the nightly audience of 2,000 would laugh in the wrong places. Finally Barnam closed the show when he found the crass New Yorkers applauding the villain, encouraging the hero to drink and vilely cursing the reformers.

In 1933 the play was vividly revived in Los Angeles and enjoyed the longest run in the history of legitimate theater, playing to packed houses of hissing and booing audiences until it finally closed in 1962. In 1964 Bro Herrod adapted the show and made it a musical with his friend, Barry Manilow. In ran continuously for six years at the 13th Street Theatre in New York. Now Director Wendy Bidstrup and Music Director Nancy Sparklin are mounting another production of this historic melodrama.

The cast includes Kevin Halligan as the hero, Kim Hrasky as the heroine, Carl Lamoreaux as Edward's foster brother, Joan Prescott as the widowed mother, David Pierce as the preacher, Michele Kelley as Carrie Nation, Mark Letourneau is the bartender, Helda Pacheco as Bill's demented sister, Maddy West as Julia, a child; and the dastardly villain and foul tempter is played by

Movie Review

Men at Work

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

Clerks II*. Starring Brian O'Halloran and Jeff Anderson. Directed by Kevin Smith. Running time: 97 minutes. MPAA rating: R.

Kevin Smith's Clerks II is to his original Clerks what Richard Linklater's Before Sunset was to his original Before Sunrise. Both sequels revisit the director's favorite characters about a decade later, examining how life and the clock have taken their toll. And both are ideally seen as bookend pieces, to be watched one after the other. (Amusingly, the Smith/Linklater analogy extends to the characters being animated in the interim between films — Linklater's couple in a cameo in Waking Life, Smith's counter jockeys in ABC's short-lived Clerks cartoon.) In Linklater's world, people philosophize; in Smith's world, people philosophize, with dirty jokes.

Smith opens Clerks II in grainy black-and-white, in winking emulation of the original's (financially necessary) style. Dante (Brian O'Halloran) slouches over to the Quick Stop convenience store for another day at work, and finds it on fire. He and buddy Randal (Jeff Anderson), who works at the adjoining video store, are now out of a job. So they find themselves flipping burgers at Mooby's, the film's cow-themed answer to McDonald's (which first reared its fattening head in Smith's Dogma). After a year of this, Dante is ready to move on, and finds his "golden ticket" in Emma (Jennifer Schwalbach, Smith's wife), a well-meaning but dull blonde who wants to whisk Dante away to Florida, where he'll work at her father's car wash. It sounds like the soul-killing fate worse than death endured by the men in Brokeback Mountain, marrying into respectability at the expense of what they actually want.

Randal, terrified of having his friendship with Dante construed as gay, would take issue with that comparison. But Clerks II gets at the heart of (non-sexual) love between men at least as knowingly as the Ang Lee film. Women like Emma seek to break that bond, whereas women like Becky (Rosario Dawson), Dante's boss at Mooby's, at least respect it even if they don't quite understand it. The movie also brings back Jay and Silent Bob (Jason Mewes and Smith himself), heterosexual lifemates who don't seem to bother with the opposite sex very much, though Jay boasts of his alleged exploits loudly and often. In a key scene, Randal lets Dante know how much he'll miss him when Dante moves away, and the moment carries more punch than a comparable scene would between Dante and a woman.

So far, Clerks II doesn't sound like a lot of laughs. But there is raunchy fun to be had here; the infamous "donkey show" scene that Joel Siegel walked out on is wild without being particularly explicit. And Randal has a new foil in a weirdly dorky Mooby's employee, Elias (Trevor Fehrman), who worships Transformers and Lord of the Rings with a fervor that offends Randal's Star Wars-loving sensibilities. If Clerks II has a flaw, it's that Dante and Randal don't have enough screen time together — but then, the very form of the movie makes us feel Randal's gradual estrangement from Dante. Before seeing the film, I read Kevin Smith's lengthy blog entries about his struggles to get his friend Jason Mewes off drugs; Smith's sadness at Mewes' growing away from him finds its way indirectly into Clerks II. (Mewes has now been clean for three years, and his reward was this film's revival of Jay and Silent Bob, though Smith had earlier sworn that 2001's Jay & Silent Bob Strike Back was their swan song.)

How do you reconcile the desire to be true to yourself with the desire to make something of yourself? Clerks II strikes a balance, though with the unlikely deus ex machina help of Jay and Silent Bob. (Which may be Smith's way of saying that those two have been very, very good to him.) The movie sort of ends up where the original Clerks began, with a significant difference. Clerks II will resonate with viewers in Smith's age range (mid-thirties) in a way that goes beyond comedy, just as the first one did with twentysomethings. It also, of course, finds time for obscene riffs on everything from gay hobbits to The Silence of the Lambs. It's clear by now that Smith is comfortable in his Quick Stop and isn't in any hurry to burn it down.

Caryn Koffman is a summer resident of Marion and lives in Philadelphia during the winter. She has exhibited in numerous juried shows and has won many prizes for her photographs. She is represented in the Artforms Gallery at Manayunk, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Art Center Sarasota, Florida and Rogers Gallery in Mattapoisett. Unlike many contemporary photographers, Caryn does not manipulate any images. Her work has developed into an account of the world as it is; nothing is moved or removed, only emphasized. She draws in the viewer by isolating the subject, cropping away any distractions and captures the moment and reveals the subject's spirit.

John Wheatley is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Northwestern Law School. For the last 30 years he has studied the use of various art media with William Lawrence, Christopher Shinck, George Nick, Alexandra Walker, Albert Alcalay at Harvard, Janet Monafo at Massachusetts College of Art, and Joel Babb at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. He has exhibited at the Pembroke Arts Festival, the Marion Art Center, the Bridgewater Public Library and the Providence Art Club. His oil paintings are in private collections on the South Coast.

Sharlie Sudduth lives in Marion and is a prolific watercolor painter. Recently she has also produced some oils on canvas. Her love of nature and the area around Buzzards Bay and the coastline of Maine is reflected in intimate scenes and landscapes.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You face the possibility of raising your relationship to another level. However, your partner might demand that you make promises for which you're not sure you're ready.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) As changes continue, expect things to get a little more hectic at your workplace. An unexpected travel opportunity could open new career prospects.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Confront the person who caused your hurt feelings and demand a full explanation for his or her actions. You'll not only recover your self-esteem, but you'll also gain the respect of others.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That personal problem in the workplace is compounded by someone's biased interference. Stand your ground, and you'll soon find allies gathering around you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You don't accept disapproval easily. But instead of hiding out in your den to lick your wounded pride, turn the criticism into a valuable lesson for future use.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) That former friend you thought you'd cut out of your life is still affecting other relationships. Counter his or her lies with the truth. Your friends are ready to listen.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) What appears to be an unfair situation might simply be the result of a misunderstanding. If you feel something is out of balance, by all means, correct it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A stalled relationship won't budge until you make the first move. Your partner offers a surprising explanation about what got it mired down in the first place.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A co-worker shares some startling news, but before you can use it to your advantage, make sure it's true. The weekend favors family matters.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your usual conservative approach to family situations might not work at this time. Keep an open mind about developments, and you might be pleasantly surprised.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Plans might have to be put on hold because of a family member's problems. Don't hesitate to get involved. Your help could make all the difference.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Relationships in the home and in the workplace need your careful attention during this period. Be careful not to allow misunderstandings to create problems.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a keen, insightful intellect and enjoy debating your views with others who disagree with you. You also love to solve puzzles -- the harder, the better.

I found the Aardvark!

Each week we will give away an Aardvark Gift and each month we give away a special Aardvark Gift Basket to one lucky person. All you have to do to enter is find the Aardvark! The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please.

To enter, simply find the aardvark in this issue, then go to our web page and select the link "I Found the Aardvark" entry page. If you would like to enter by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

Deadline for each week is 5pm on the Wednesday after the date of publication. All entries must be dated or postmarked on or before that Wednesday.

Rochester Tree Challenge

The Rochester Green Ways Committee has also begun its Big Tree Challenge with prizes to be awarded at the Rochester Country Fair this August. The committee is asking residents to enter examples of large trees of any species in Rochester for consideration. Trees will be scored by girth and height, and the winner of each species will be recorded as well as win a prize. People may enter as many trees as they wish. For more information, please contact Laurene Gerrior at 508-763-4223 or stop by Town Hall for a checklist of Tree Species in Rochester and a Guide to

Election of Officers

The election of the Fairhaven Historical Society's Officers for 2006-2007 was held on June 28 at the Century House in Acushnet. The members, after enjoying a lovely dinner on exquisitely decorated tables plus lively musical selections, voted to install as President Enrique Goytizolo; Vice President Barbara Acksen; Secretary Nancy Perry; Treasurer Deborah Davis; Curator Kenneth Peirce; Research Max and Karen Isaksen; Liason David Despres; and Publicity Martha Berg, along with these Directors: Carole Morris, Susan Joseph, Eric Berg, Frank Rezendes, Mark Badway and Joan Boucher. Plaques for homes outstandingly restored were made to the homeowners by the House Awards Committee.

A POWERFUL PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRITHoly Spirit, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so I can attain my goals, you who give me the divine gifts to forgive and forget all evil against me, in this short prayer, to thank you for all things and confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory, thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor. Only your initials shall appear at the bottom. P.M.L.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN
O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my Mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to secure me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in her hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days and then you must publish; it will be granted to you. N.L.
